About the Perth Hills

How long has it been since you headed to the Hills and discovered your doorstep? The Darling Range is Perth's great unexplored playground. Hiking and walking, cycling, wildflowers, markets, history, wineries, cideries, breweries, distilleries, native animals and birds, views, waterfalls, creeks, boutique accommodation, luxury spas, galleries and artists' studios, cafés, restaurants, pubs, taverns, scenic drives, fruit picking and much, much more. You can even take a camel ride through the forest! And at only 30 minutes from the CBD, it's the day trip or weekend staycation that has plenty to offer.

About WA Food & Wine Trails

12. JARRAHDALE TAVERN

Family friendly with fantastic outdoor play area.

Dog friendly beer garden. Historic 150 year old Tavern.

With an original structure dating back to 1894 and spectacular views of the surrounding jarrah forest, the historic Jarrahdale Tavern is the perfect place to relax with a cold drink and good food and unwind from city life. Close to the metro area in the Perth foothills, yet it feels like miles away from suburbia.

13. MILLBROOK WINERY

Celebrating Millbrook Winery's 20th year

The highly acclaimed, two Chef Hat Millbrook Restaurant is located at the picturesque Chestnut Farm, a property that backs on to the Serpentine River and is nestled among jarrah forests, with stunning vistas of the rolling landscape. The estate's one-acre garden provides the inspiration for the ever-changing seasonal menus.

With 100 varieties of heirloom vegetables, an orchard and other produce sustainably grown on the estate or sourced from local suppliers, our kitchen creates dishes bursting with flavour which pair perfectly with Millbrook's premium wines.

9. AVOCADOS CAFE

Beautiful views and delicious food

Avocados Cafe is a picturesque restaurant and function centre set directly on the banks of the beautiful Canning River. It is surrounded by an avocado orchard and 7 acres of garden. The restaurant can cater for large groups, weddings and a la carte dining with modern Australian cuisine. A waterside lunch at "Avo's" is a must when visiting the Perth Hills.

10. SEVEN SINS PERTH HILLS

Sinfully different

Renowned Chef Sebastian Sindermann is poised to introduce Seven Sins. Sebastian and his team are locals who know how important great quality, locally sourced food and service are. The iconic location, overlooking beautiful Roleystone, now has a new lease of life and the menu has many mouth-watering temptations to offer.

II. LAST DROP ELIZABETHAN

A pure beer for a wicked world

A beautiful old English pub located up in Perth's hills. Last Drop Elizabethan has been a part of the Bedfordale community for the past 30 years (now owned and run by one of our very own).

With a huge selection of specialty hand crafted beers brewed on site by the Last Drop Brewery and beautiful grounds which are perfect for any event, this pub is really something special.

Ready to get started?

Head to the web or on to social media for information on opening days and hours. Check out menus to decide what you’re really in the mood for. (The venues are really popular; bookings are highly recommended).

Now, of course we know your tummy won’t allow you to visit every amazing venue all on one day, but there are three meals you can take advantage of! Maybe start off with a hearty brekkie in Gidgegannup or Mundaring, enjoy lunch in the Bickley Valley with a glass of incredible BV wine, and then head further south to Armadale or Serpentine/Jarrahdale for a delicious dinner and a Hills sunset. Oh, and not to forget morning and afternoon tea or coffee and cake! We make great coffee in the Hills!

Then, on another visit, go in a whole different direction! With 14 venues to visit, you are spoilt for choice.

On your gastronomic journey through the Perth Hills, you will see some spectacular scenery. Call in to our Visitor Centres for information on places to stop and stretch your legs while taking in great views or some forest tranquillity. And for history buffs, our Visitor Centres also have some great suggestions on how to experience and learn about the history of the Perth Hills.

Explore some more

Of course there’s a lot more to the Perth Hills than just great food. Head to the visitor centre websites and social media for everything you need to know about how to enjoy your time in the Perth Hills. Follow us on social media for all the up to date offers and info.
