

Welcome to the Perth Hills – the home of the heritage pub

Here in the Perth Hills, we love a heritage pub. Old floorboards and a ghost story or two only makes the beer taste better.

From Serpentine in the south to Gidgegannup in the north, you won't have any trouble finding an historic pub, tavern, or hotel, each with a unique history and an inviting atmosphere.

HERITAGE PUBS TRAIL

I. NOBLE FALLS TAVERN

Established in 1962, Gidgegannup

Noble Falls Tavern is nestled high on the hill overlooking picturesque Noble Falls Reserve and nearby to the Noble Falls Walk Trail.

Call in for a delicious meal or a cold drink after enjoying the Trail and the Falls. Dine on hearty pub food - roasts, burgers, curries - in the restaurant or beer garden or on the licenced Terrace. The bar is large, with two pool tables and TV screens so you can enjoy your favourite sport.

About the Perth Hills

How long has it been since you headed to the Hills and discovered your doorstep? The Darling Range is Perth's great unexplored playground. Hiking and walking, cycling, wildflowers, markets, history, wineries, cideries, breweries, distilleries, native animals and birds, views, waterfalls, creeks, boutique accommodation, luxury spas, galleries and artists' studios, cafes, restaurants, pubs, taverns, scenic drives, fruit picking and much, much more. You can even take a camel ride through the forest! And at only 30 minutes from the CBD, it's the day trip or weekend staycation that has plenty to offer.

8. YE OLDE NARROGIN INNE

The Narry... where great food, prices and service meet a piece of history

A beautiful old pub built back in 1857. We have a lot of historic pictures around the venue that complement the texture and atmosphere of this iconic building. We offer an extensive and reasonably priced menu, a large range of tap beers and amazing staff that can't wait to meet you. Do yourself a favour and pop in, enjoy our warm open fires and cosy family friendly atmosphere.

9. JARRAHDALE TAVERN

Family friendly with fantastic outdoor play area. Dog friendly beer garden. Historic 150 year old Tavern.

With an original structure dating back to 1894 and spectacular views of the surrounding jarrah forest, the historic Jarrahdale Tavern is the perfect place to relax with a cold drink and good food and unwind from city life. Close to the metro area in the Perth foothills, yet it feels like miles away from suburbia.

Lives better at the Parkerville Tavern.
It's where good food, drinks and friends come together.

Find us

Nestled in a wooded valley near numerous walk and cycle trails, the beautifully restored Parkerville Tavern (Est 1902) is a picturesque, double storey, Federation-style pub. The Tavern is ideal for friends, couples, and families, with indoor and veranda seating, a large beer garden, plus a great playground, flowing creek and farm animals to amuse the kids. Enjoy roaring log fires in Saturday evenings and Sunday afternoons. There's even free Wi-Fi!

5. THE MUNDARING HOTEL

Find us

The recently refurbished Mundaring Hotel, located in the heart of Mundaring, boasts a family-friendly restaurant, a unique alfresco patio dining, lounge bar and cosy beer garden (well-behaved fur babies on leads welcome). The newly renovated kitchen delivers an extensive menu offering delicious traditional Australian pub food plus unique daily specials. Pair your meal with a drop from our extensive wine list. A perfect pit-stop for anyone exploring the local area, or stay a little longer with us and enjoy cosy log fires, Sunday roasts and live music.

"The Mounties" is a traditional Australian pub established in 1902. A visit to The Mounties 900 Keane St, Mount Helena makes you feel like you've gone back in time; there's a charming country vibe and good atmosphere, you can let your kids play in our creek. Indoor and outdoor TVs near cosy fires will keep you warm in winter. Well behaved dogs and horses are always welcome. A great range of Aussie pub food includes our much-loved burgers and gluten-free options.

6. MUNDARING WEIR HOTEL

Hills Heritage in the Forest

Mundaring Weir Hotel is a turn of the century establishment, originally built for the workers and visitors to the nearby Mundaring Weir. Less than 1 hour from the heart of Perth, the Hotel provides the perfect venue for a social outing. Dine in the downstairs coffee shop (weekends), the historic Duke and Duchess dining room, or in the Tree-Tops restaurant overlooking the amphitheatre where regular summer concerts boast music from jazz to popular rock bands.

7. KALAMUNDA HOTEL

The heart of the hills

The Kalamunda Hotel has been serving locals and visitors since 1902. Our menu takes inspiration from our beautiful heritage building, where you'll find traditional pub and country style meals. Catch the game, or enjoy the beer garden. Whatever the occasion, the Kalamunda Hotel is the perfect place to go.
